CHRISTIAN BROTHERS HIGH SCHOOL
ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI

St. John Baptist de la Salle Founder of the Brothers of the Christian Schools

Dedication

The first annual in the history of C. B., is respectfully dedicated to all the Brothers, past and present, who have devoted their time and energy in doing the work of God among the men of St. Joseph.

Short History of C. B.

The Christian Brothers came to St. Joseph in 1859, not long after the first arrival of the Brothers in America. St. Joseph, at this time was a frontier town, whose one contact with western civilization was the Pony Express. The gold rush had made the business here flourish, and the need for education in St. Joseph, was a tangible example in the city's expansion.

The original school building was built at 13th and Henry streets, but the Brothers were unable to commence classes until 1867, since during the Civil War, the building was used to quarter, alternately, both Union and Confederate troops. The first commencement was in 1869. As a supplement to the College department, the Brothers opened a grade school at 11th and Monterey. It was known as the Patee town school, and although closed at the turn of the century, the structure still stands, having served as a stable, garage, and at present, it is being converted into an apartment house.

The following years were years of expansion. In compliance with the wishes of Bishop Hogan, a boarding department was opened and in 1886, a new building was built to meet with the increasing enrollment. The building was very imposing, and stood well until 1926. Then, the wear and tear of the years made it far from its original splendor, so far as being nicknamed by the students, "The Shack."

At about the time Jesse James and his gang were making their daring and notorious exploits, Christian Brothers College was making quite a name for itself.

The number of boarders increased yearly, coming from as far as Mexico. Often the "Help Wanted" advertisements of St. Joseph business houses and banks bore the note "Brothers' College graduates preferred." Similarly, many local businessmen remarked that a Brothers' graduate could be recognized by his excellent penmanship.

St. Joseph, Home of the Pony Express

In 1883, a new administration endeavored to introduce a liberal arts course, and made new courses in Latin and Greek compulsory. However, these subjects could not be mastered by the students, and resulted in no graduating class in 1884. This established C.B.C. more strongly than ever as a commercial college. The graduating classes of these times were quite small, not because there were few students, but because the students went to school with the prime purpose of securing a position, and when they received employment they ceased their scholastic pursuits prior to any graduation.

The turn of the century marked a new era for the school. The annual alumni banquet attracted much public interest, as well as the pompous graduation ceremonies. As public speaking was in its heyday at this time, a typical commencement program included vocal selections from the school Glee Club, an essay read by a student, some violin solos, another pair of essays giving the pro and con on some current issue, another essay, the valedictory, the awarding of the medals and diplomas, and finally the address of the graduation speaker.

St. Joseph, whose population had exceeded 80,000, was now a thriving municipality. Many industries, which had established here, now became important producers for the country, especially the meat-packing, cereal and brewing industries. The city's boulevard system, one of the most beautiful in the country, was built as well as parks, public buildings, and other civic improvements.

As the city was making timely improvements, likewise it became apparent in the early twenties, that the "Shack" was in no condition to continue due to its run-down condition. There were large cracks in the walls, and strange noises seemed to be heard at off hours around the premises. Rumors of these "ghosts," usually in Civil War garb, were attributed to the hoof marks in the basement and other reminders of Civil War days. Then too a corresponding need for a Catholic boys' high school in the city arose. After a vigorous subscription campaign, spearheaded by Bishop Gilfillan, funds were raised for the erection of a new edifice. A site was bought at Noyes Boulevard and Union Street, formerly a park project of the Klu Klux Klan. The cornerstone was laid on May 11, 1927, and the school opened the following September.

His Excellency, C. H. LeBlond, the present bishop of the St. Joseph diocese, has worked wholeheartedly in co-ordination with the administrations of the school. Since the school's erection, its progress has been symbolized by expansion. Today, Christian Brothers of St. Joseph is a modern high school in all respects. It stands as a living testimony to the fruitful labors of the Brothers, who have molded the young men of the city into ideal and Christian gentlemen.

WILFRID HARRISON

The sudden death of Wilfrid Harrison on February 13, 1948, was a terrible shock to the entire school. An outstanding example of a brilliant high school student, his memory lies in his quiet and charitable life, which tends to serve as a model for the rest of us now that he has passed on. The tasks required of him in his short life he fulfilled to the letter as evidenced by his ardent devotion both to his lessons and to his God. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

At the right is the C. B. cafeteria at lunch time. The smiling Mrs. Rear-don knows the appetites of the boys and also knows how to satisfy them with delicious meals.

Above is Joe Gould, professional clown, who entertained the school with his performance. He is surrounded by several interested freshmen.

BASEBALL

C. B. captured the American Legion Junior Baseball title of 1947 with five victories and one defeat.

The one mar on the record was a close 2-1 upset by the Lafayette team. Leading 1-0, C. B. committed an error to place a man on first. Then Duke, Lafayette's pitcher, promptly knocked a home run over the right field fence.

The wins of the Coca-Cola sponsored team included two victories over second place Benton, one over third place Lafayette, and two over Central. Because it was necessary to come from behind in each Benton game, both were exciting encounters.

The team also disposed of a post season all-star team composed of Lafayette and Central players.

The St. Joseph city champs did not go far in the state tournament held this year in St. Joseph. In a double elimination manner, C. B. was pitted against St. Louis, who overwhelmed the Coca-Cola nine, 22-2. The St. Louis team, however proceeded to win the tournament and advance to the regional. In the second game, C. B. lost to Joplin, 10-1, thus being eliminated from the tournament by the team which also reached the finals with St. Louis.

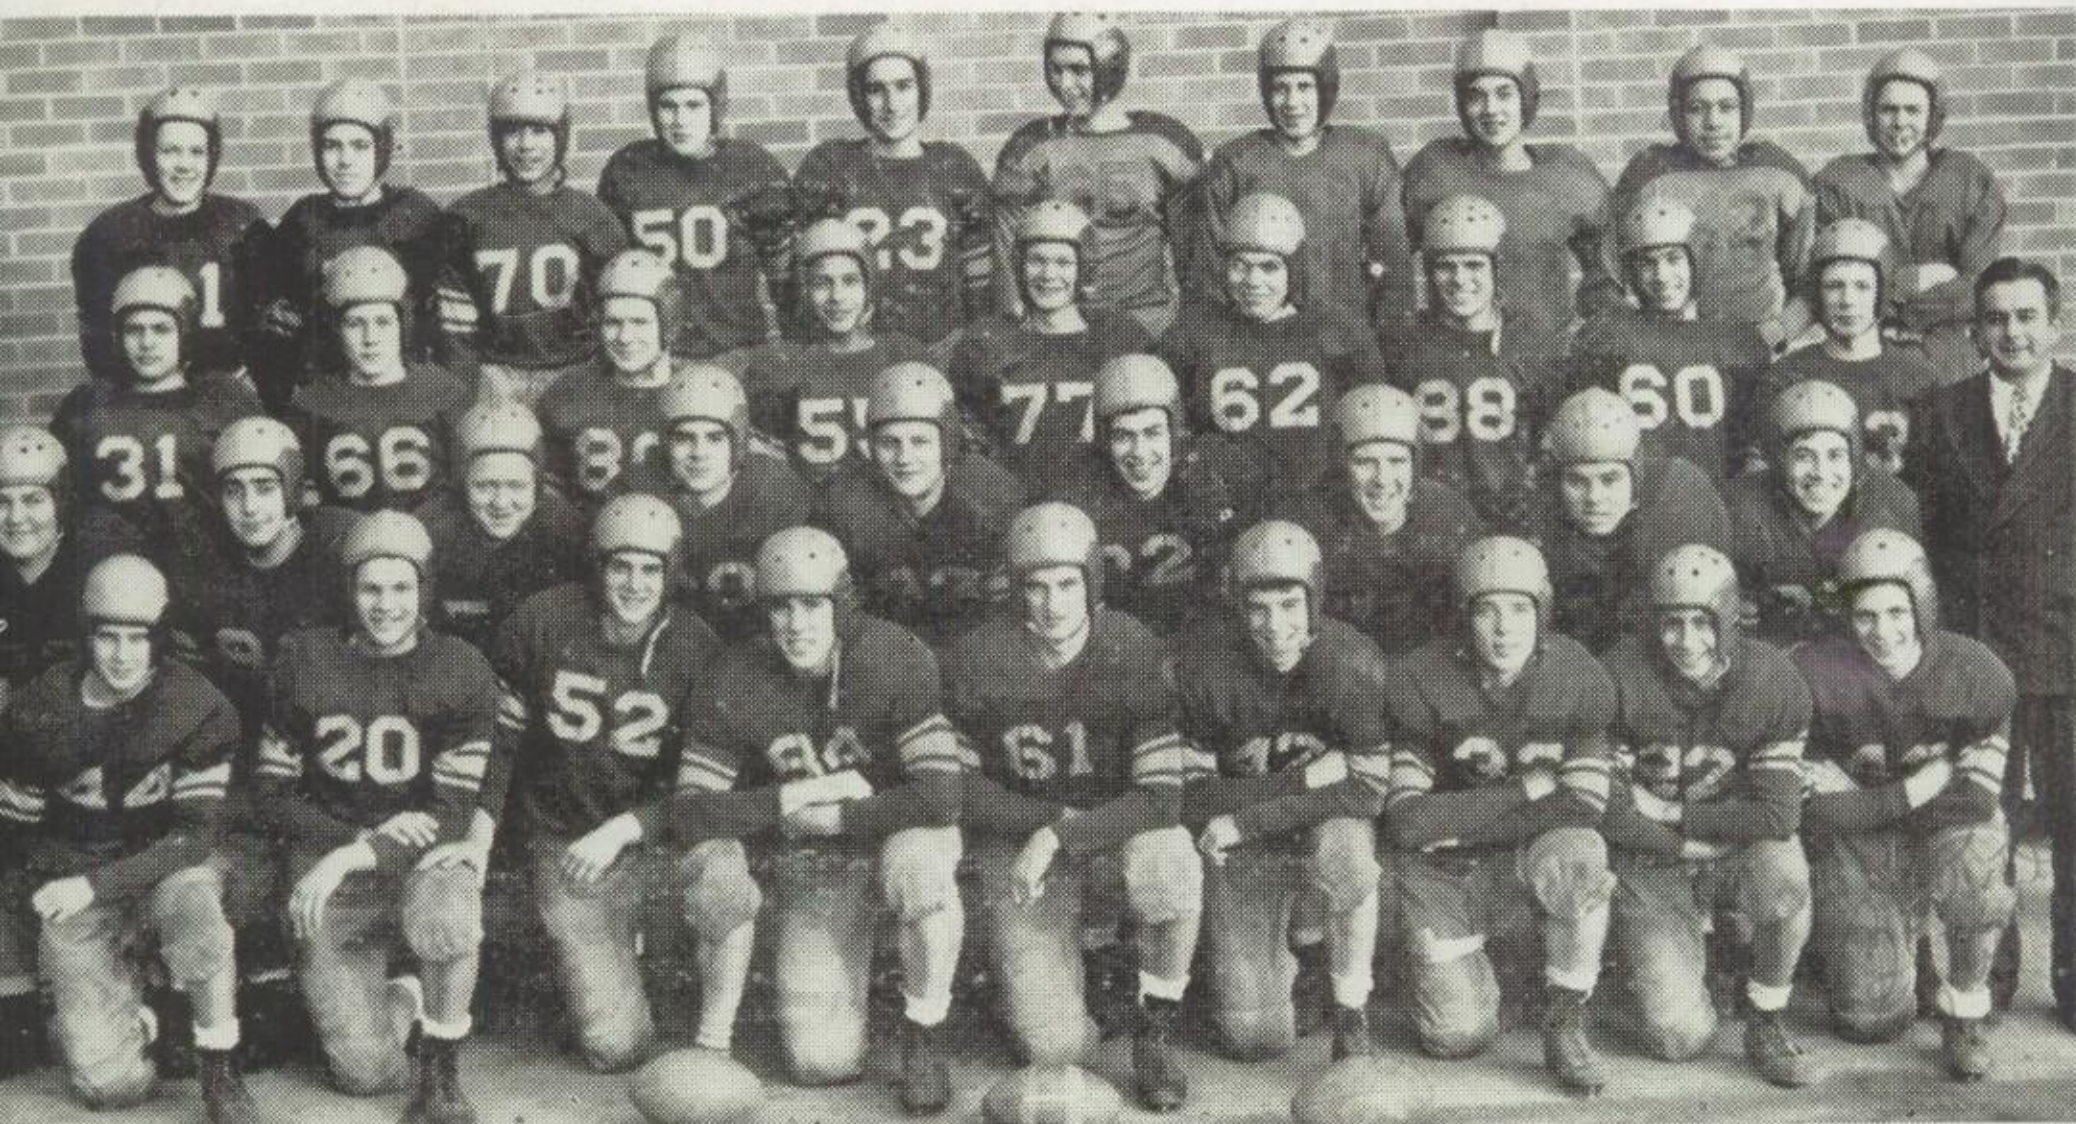

During season play, home runs were hit by Frank DeMar, Rick Barbosa, Dick Poolman, Jim Glenski, and two by George Scott. Scott pitched two league victories and lost one decision. Carmona won two and suffered one defeat; and Winston won one and lost none.

Four Benton players accompanied C. B. to the state tournament. They were J. C. Wood, a pitcher; M. Lytle, an infielder; Ken Carter, a catcher, and Bill Sherman, an infielder. Sherman received a wrist watch from Emerson Jewelry Company for making the first St. Joseph hit in the St. Louis-St. Joseph game.

The C. B. lineup included: Jim Glenski, Frank DeMar, Dick Poolman and Bill Ringel, infielders; Ric Barbosa, Roger Girard, Jerry Lorenz, Bob Schaefer and Vince Giannetta, outfielders; Faustino Barbosa, catcher; Bick Winston, George Scott, and Sal Carmona, pitchers.

The Golden Eagles football team lost their initial contest to the strong North Kansas City, Pony Express Conference champions. It was our first and only defeat of the season. The score was 12-0.

Our win string began when we rolled over the Immaculata Raiders of Leavenworth with a 26-0 score.

The Central game, the most rivalrous of the season, gave us the first notch toward the City Championship by a close 6-0 victory. This was our second victory over the Indians in city grid history, the first win being last year.

Next, the team travelled to Jefferson City to dump the St. Peter's Saint, 26-0 in another lop-sided contest.

In the season's homecoming game, we edged Benton by a 14-13 squeeze. This was the most vigorously fought contest of the year and gave us virtually the City Championship.

With three-fourths of the starting backfield sidelined with injuries, the Eagles outscored De LaSalle of Kansas City 19-12, to offset the Cadets' upsetting our team last year.

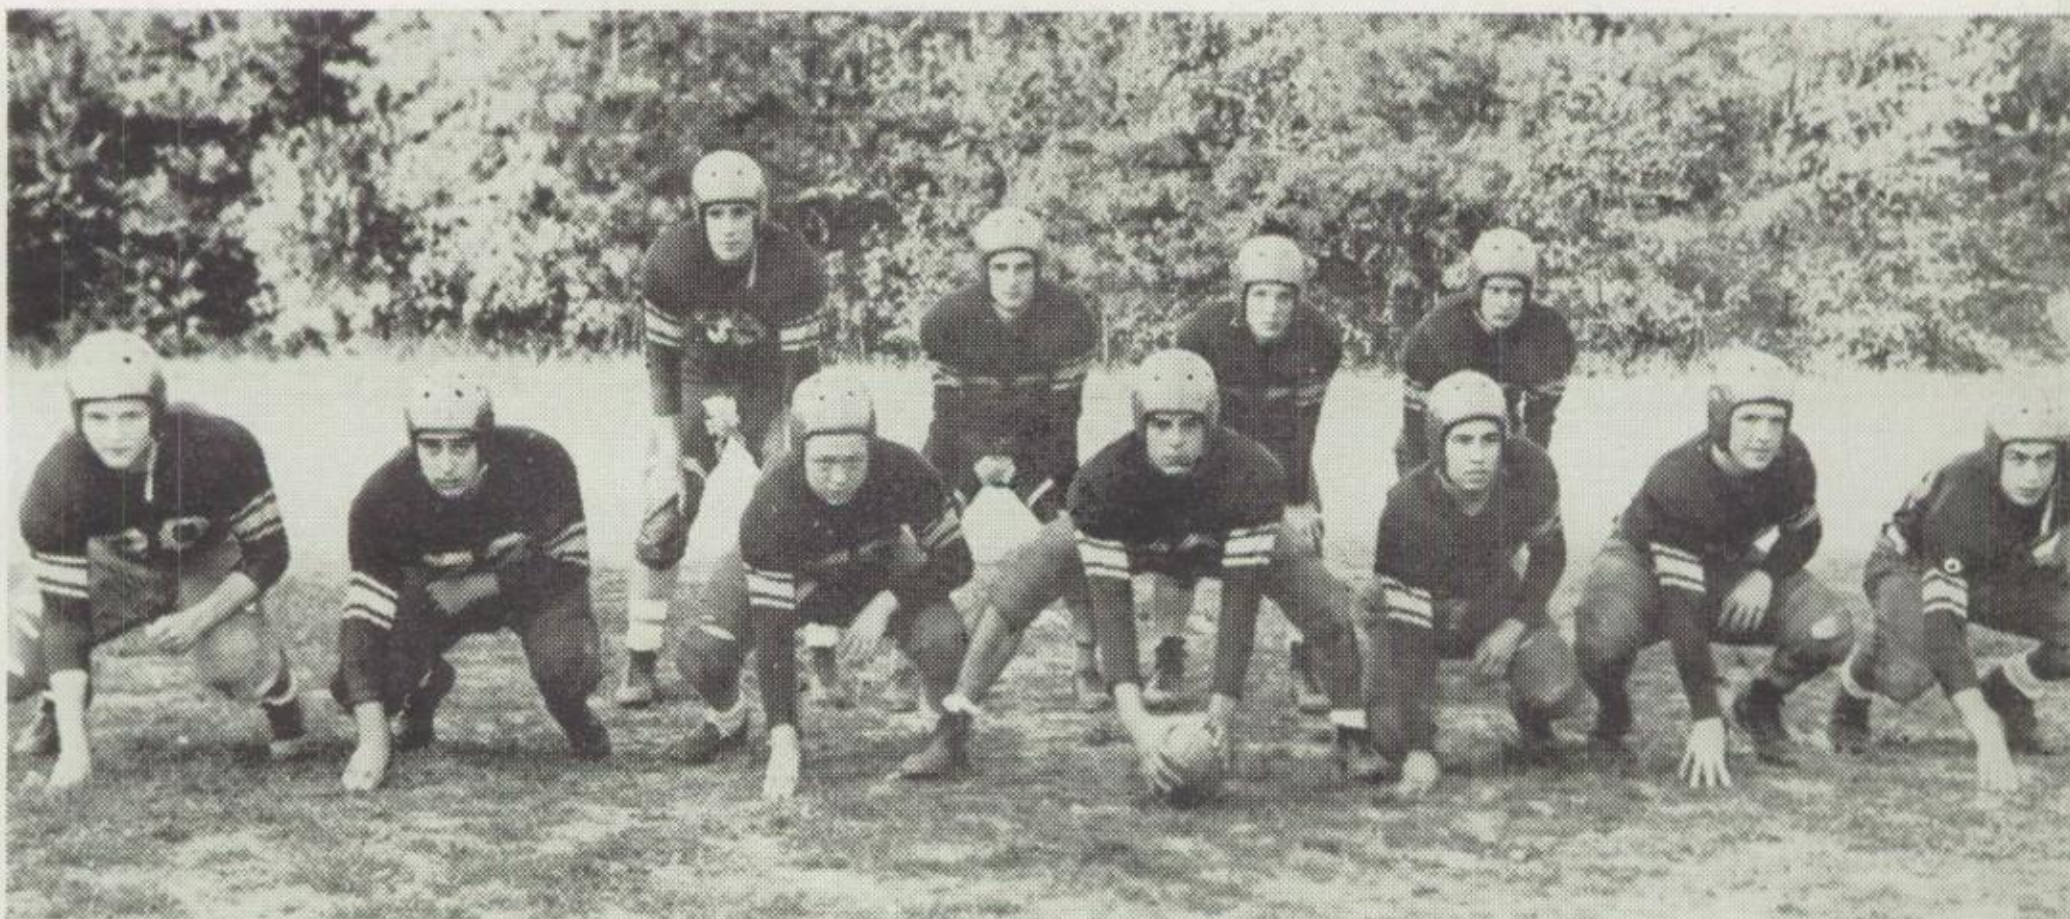

The next victim was Savannah, whom we easily put in place with a 21-6 win.

The Maryville game found all injured starters back in the line-up, to power us to a 28-6 victory over the Spoofhounds.

We claimed the undisputed city title when we romped over the Lafayette Shamrocks, 34-0. The team made a grand finale in this game, despite the heavy rain and snow which fell.

Homecoming

On October 25, our homecoming game with Benton took place. As part of the homecoming festivities, the football varsity chose Miss Connie Cates of the Sacred Heart Convent as the homecoming queen and presented her with a trophy. Her attendants were: Miss Charlita Kendzora, Miss Virginia Hartigan, Miss Charlotte Butler, and Miss Mary Joan Harris. A dance followed the game to complete the gala event.

Backfield: Art Spratt, Bill Waitkoss, Tony Christ, and Carl Cox. Line: A. J. Waitkoss, Joe Rizzo, Red Bokay, Mike Lopez, Vic Vera, Dick Dornhoffer, and Frank Schaff.

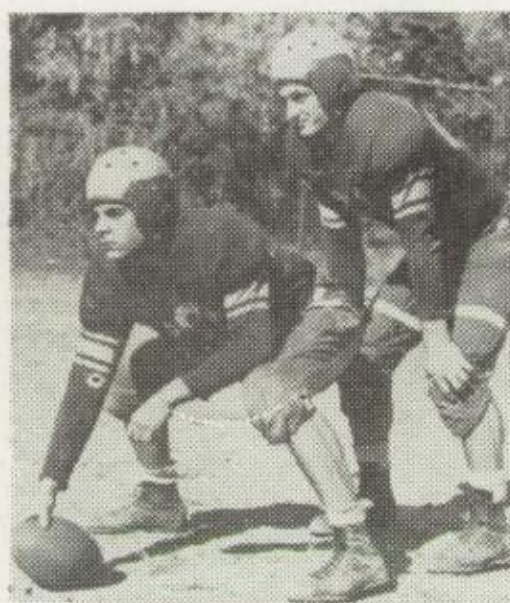

Kessinger's Mentorship

In two seasons, our football team under the mentorship of Dale Kessinger has won 15 out of 18 games for a new high in C. B. grid prowess. In 1946, the Eagles were runner-ups for the City Championship, while in 1947 they secured the undisputed championship, the first since 1936. It is fitting to note that these successful seasons were highlighted by victories over our arch-rival, Central, the first times in C. B. grid history.

The C. B. Football city champions were guests of the Durwood-Missouri Theatre where Mayor H. D. Allison presented them with the Durwood Trophy. The Convent Glee Club added to the ceremony with several beautiful renditions.

Co-Captains Mike Lopez and Bill Waitkoss

The Optimist Club of St. Joseph honored the C. B. gridders with a banquet at the Pennant Cafeteria. The Optimist football trophy, as well as the Optimist basketball trophy was presented to the Eagles. The players were awarded gold footballs. Harry Smith, Missouri U. line coach, gave a brief talk and showed several football movies.

BASKETBALL

Coach Kessinger discusses next year's possibilities with Sal Carmona, Ed Messbarger, Stan Tworek, Tony Christ, Byron Thompson, Jim Glenski, and Jerry Schellhorn.

Coach Kessinger's basketball team this season saw many obstacles to overcome. Our team encountered many injuries while playing some of the best teams in the state. We saw our team take the De LaSalle tournament, come in first at the Sub-Regional and at Pickett's tournament. The outlook was favorable in the city league only to see us lose two close games and end up with a tie for second place.

Johnny Rocha was placed on the all-city team, a distinction he well deserved. A. J. Waitkoss and Ray Evans were honored by second team places.

Next year's team looks favorable with the reserves undefeated in their city league race and the freshmen handing in a strong record.

On the following pages you will find some things of interest which will tell further the story of this year's basketball.

TRACK

In the last two years track at Christian Brothers has become a major sport. It wasn't until last year that the Eagles gained success. They took the City League Championship and Tarkio Tri-State Championship.

There were, however, two main factors in achieving such success. The first credit should be given to our coach, Mr. Dale Kessinger, whose love of track has formulated an interest in the boys. Secondly, credit goes to the boys themselves whose spirit of competition proved a link in making track a major sport.

The cinder squad of Christian Brothers placed in every competitive meet last year.

With the official opening of the track season for 1948 at North Kansas City, Christian Brothers has again proved to be a threat for the City League crown. With an experienced and fresh squad the Eagles have shown balanced power in all events. It is now up to them to better this showing against local high school contenders.

At the left is Norman Cole, outstanding C. B. track athlete of '47, as he finishes the 100 yd. dash in City Meet. During his senior year he was undefeated in the dashes. At the right is Paul Crotty, C. B. Broad Jumper, as he competes in City Novice, '47.

Dramatics

Every season when the Eagles group together they perform difficult feats in the air for one-another; so too each season do the "Golden Eagles" present a dramatic production at the home of the "Eagles," C. B.

In 1945 the Dramatic Club of C. B. was revived and play production started once again. Since then four memorable productions have been added to the history of C. B.'s stage, namely: "Almost Summer," '45; "Moonlight for Herbert," '46; "Ten Little Indians," '47, and "Charley's Aunt," '48. These plays have been a great success in the past and now they are handed down to the Future Golden Eagles to carry on this successful tradition.

At the right is Gerald Foster and Ronald Erken in the final scene from "Ten Little Indians."

The Sentinel

Standing (l. to r.) are: Bob Slater, Gene Drag, Jim Schellhorn, Dick Dornhoffer, Don Boleski, Vincent Sutera, and John Mansbarger. Seated are: Gerald Foster, Bob Schaefer, Bob Lorenz, and Phil Rother.

The Sentinel is the monthly school paper of Christian Brothers. It is the official organ which tells of school news, sports, and other activities.

The staff, ranging from editorship to reporter, is made up of the students themselves.

The circulation of the Sentinel, embraces, not only the students, but is also exchanged with contemporary institutions, as well as sent to alumni, friends, and advertisers. Besides news articles, there are many special features, such as poetry, editorials, feature articles, which are skillfully written by talented students. The Sentinel moderator is Brother Anthony, English and language teacher.

Camera Club

Sea Scouts

The sea scouts are a branch of senior scouting. However, to join this organization, one need have no previous scouting experience. The members of the sea scouts sponsor hayrides, dances, roller skating parties and other enjoyable pastimes.

The Chairman of the Ship's Committee for the sea scouts is Brother Oliver. Their skipper is Robert E. Helling. While organizations of Boy Scouts are called troops, sea scouts form ships. The local sea scouts belong to the S. S. Shamrock, Ship thirteen.

At present the sea scouts are the proud owners of four sail boats. They have the Lady Pat II, a moth, a boat of the lightning class, and a cat boat. Bon voyage, sea scouts.

Oratory

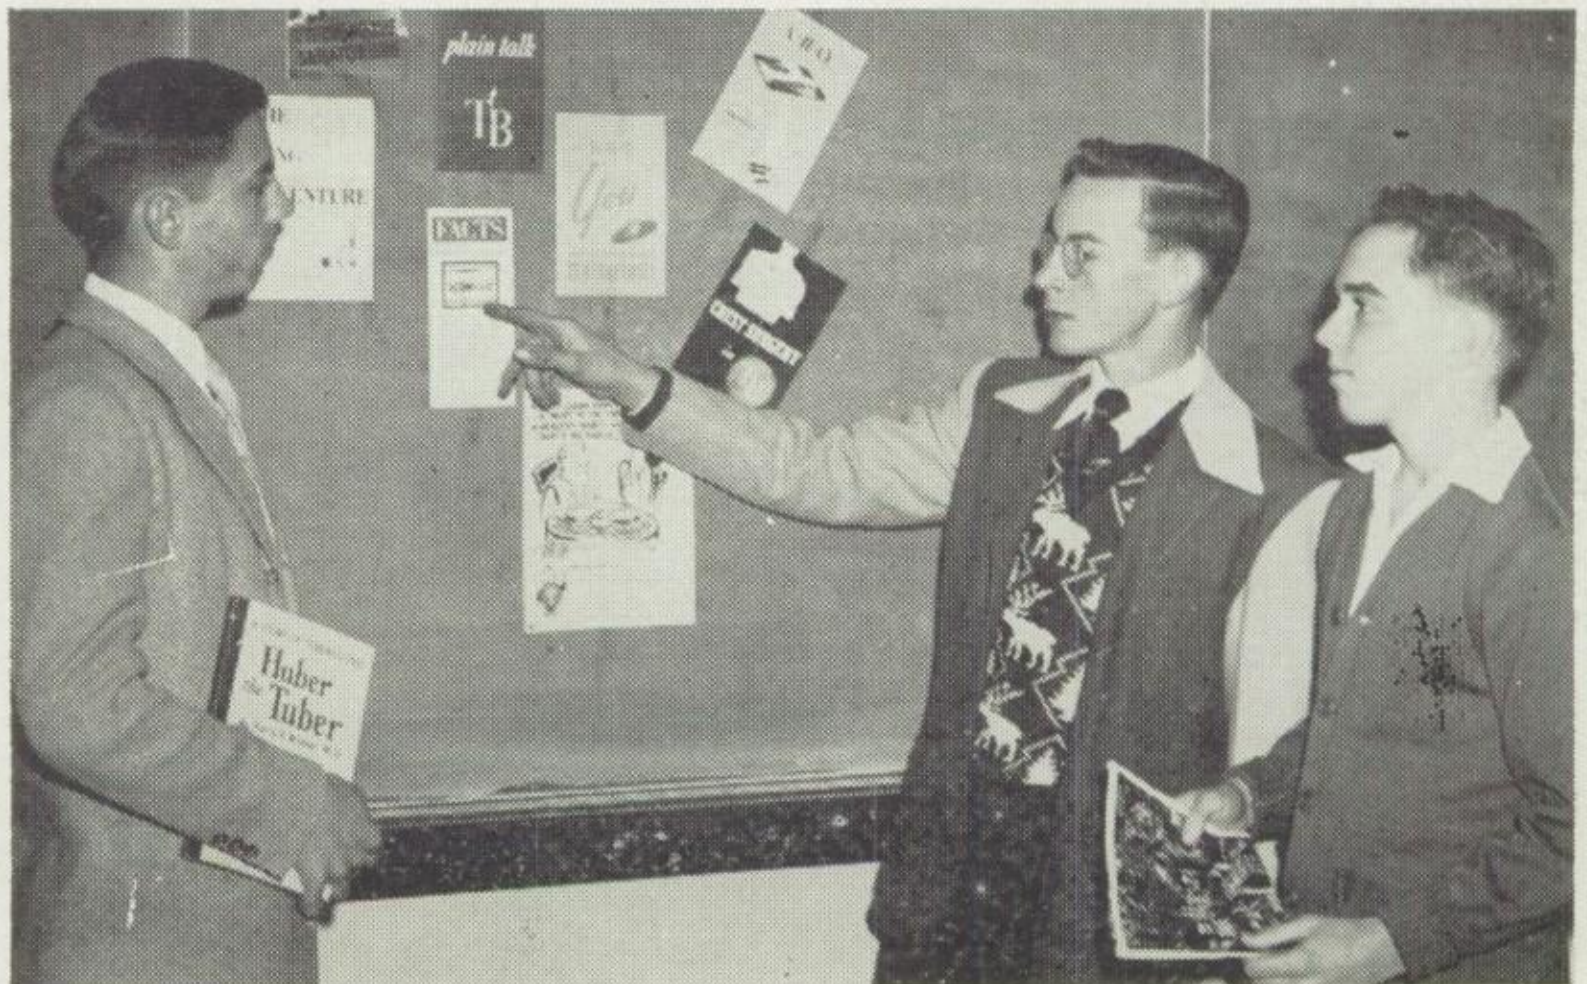

The four C. B. debaters pictured above are: Jim Fitzgerald, Don Boleski, Gene Drag, and Bob Slater. Brother Roger was the speakers' coach.

On January 15 and 16, the four boys pictured above attended a debating contest held at Atchison High School. The subject for debate was Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Require Compulsory Arbitration in All Basic American Industries. Christian Brothers was one of thirteen schools represented in a three-state area. In a six-round competition the C. B. team took one affirmative and one negative round.

In a period around Dec. 1, 1947, the drive for tuberculosis began. The services of C. B. boys was solicited in appealing for the wholehearted support of the Christmas seal campaign. The boys were Gene Drag, John Mansbarger, and Bob Slater.

Gerald Foster, another notable speaker, represented Christian Brothers in the American Legion Oratorical Contest.

At the right are Gene Drag, John Mansbarger, and Bob Slater discussing the various phases of T. B. information.

National Honor Society

The local chapter of the National Honor Society is known as the Bishop Gilfillan Chapter. The object of this chapter is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils of Christian Brothers High School.

Candidates eligible to election to the Chapter must have a scholarship equivalent to the standard of the High Honor Roll. Their eligibility shall then be considered on their service, leadership and character.

The boys who have merited membership in this society deserve the highest praise. They gained the ranks of the organization by hard work and perseverance. They have made the most of their high school educations, and the majority of them will go to seek higher learning at colleges and universities.

Auxiliary Club

Glee Club

Above are the creators of the lilting melodies that float through the corridors. These are the minstrels that harmonize to make beautiful music. In other words, these are the guys that make all that noise at noon hour - - the members of the Glee Club.

This group was originally organized to participate in the singing in celebration of the American Centennial of the arrival of the Christian Brothers in the United States. But their able director, Brother Roger, visioned greater things for the boys, and since then they have sung on a local radio station.

The boys are divided into two groups: first tenor and second tenor. The second tenors sing bass when necessary, and the first tenors have been known to switch to soprano.

The Glee Club is in the height of its glory when singing "Kentucky Babe." Their rendition of "Memory Lane" was especially appropriate at the Alumni Banquet.

Patroness Club

Officers of the Patroness Club are: Standing (l. to r.), Mrs. Glenski, Mrs. Bernard, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Flonn, Mrs. Erken. Seated: Mrs. Berndt, Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Hund.

Alumni Association

The object of the Association is to foster among the older students an affection for and loyalty to their Alma Mater and to strengthen the ties of their school years.

The Annual Alumni Banquet is the high spot of the Association's activities. Other affairs are the "Smoker" or "Get-to-gether" for sponsoring of athletic program, featuring football and basketball games.

Hundreds of our best citizens are numbered among the Alumni of C. B.

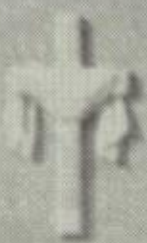

The 1948 Alumni Banquet was held April 1, 1948 at C. B. H. S. commemorating the 100th anniversary of the Brothers in the United States. As for our own C. B. it marks the 81st year in St. Joseph.

The members of the association take a very active interest in the affairs of the school and have been of much help to the faculty and students of their Alma Mater.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS HIGH SCHOOL

PRESENTED BY STUDENTS OF 1945-46

The decorations, Christmas tree, dancing partners, and a disillusioned Sutera that you see on the right are reminders of the Wild-cat Dance held in the assembly room after the Atchison basketball game.

Back in November of 1946 we were honored by a visit from Empress Zita of Hungary. Brother Gabriel, the predecessor of Brother Jerome, welcomed the Empress who told us at an assembly of the sad plight of her country. She is the middle figure in the picture above.

Brother Ferdinand, moderator of the Comera Club, snapped the picture at the right just as the basketball team was about to leave for the Hannibal Tournament. Though the boys lost their two games, they will unanimously agree that they had a grand time. The tournament was held during the Christmas holidays.

Many C. B. boys deserve a word of praise for their efforts in aiding school maintenance. At the right, Pete Lopez is replacing a bulb that helps illumine C. B. at night.
